Arriving at Richmond at 5:00 P. M. and Arriving at Richmond at 9:08 P. M.

This route, so long and favoraby knows, presents the advantages of freedom from dast, a view o beautiful and historic scenery along the river, incucing MOUNT VERNON, the home of Washingfon, the luxury of a de lebtful bath, an etgantlyserved meal, and a comfortable shave est route; and in the case of ladies and invaids, the opportumity for refreshing rest in superb staterooms.

With all the modern improvements that conduce to comfort and safety, with experienced and courtetons officers and posite and altentive servains, the EXCELSIOR leaves nothing to be desired by those who prefer the delights of water travel and sumptusum meals to the cust and monotony of an all-rail route.
